

To Whom It May Concern:

I would like to highly recommend Kevin Bechet for a position with your organization. I have known Kevin for over ten years and have found him to be creative, conscientious and a hard worker. Kevin has a tremendous personality and a skill set in production that will enhance your department and help get things accomplished.

At Curry, Kevin produced, directed and edited countless programs--from live studio productions to challenging single camera documentaries. It seemed the bigger the challenge the more enthused he would become. The productions always came in on deadline and professionally done.

What sets Kevin apart from his peers is his willingness to take direction and improve upon his skills. He's always eager to learn new techniques whether it be advanced software or the latest camera controls. You'll see on his resume how diverse his background already is. He understands public access programming, specialized productions at places like Cramer Productions, and the inner workings of master control for a commercial network.

If your organization is looking for a professional who is hard working and willing to put in the time to make sure things come out well, then Kevin Bechet should be on your short list!

If I can answer any further questions, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,
